The Department of Rehabilitation Services is one of the primary state agencies dedicated to disability services in Oklahoma. We serve individuals with a range of disabilities coming from a variety of social and cultural backgrounds.

Making a difference is what we're all about!

DRS employees work toward creating an environment that empowers people with disabilities and fosters the belief that ALL are capable of contributing to the workforce.

If you are interested in making a difference in the lives of others, DRS may be the place for you. We are searching for individuals who:

- Like working with people
- Are bilingual
- Like a challenge
- Want opportunities for advancement

DRS staff examine individual client strengths, abilities and interests to help develop achievable goals, and customize services to meet individual needs.

The agency has seven divisions specializing in different areas to:

OVERCOME BARRIERS to employment faced by people with physical or mental disabilities

PROVIDE A QUALITY EDUCATION to students attending our residential schools for the deaf or blind

DETERMINE MEDICAL ELIGIBILITY for Social Security disability benefits

CONNECT EMPLOYERS to a dedicated, reliable workforce

HELP OKLAHOMANS reach their goals through employment and independence

DRS offers:

- Wide variety of jobs
- Competitive salaries
- Excellent benefits package
- Paid holidays
- Training and career development workshops
- Advancement opportunities
- Reasonable job accommodations
- Opportunity to contribute to public service

At DRS, we are dedicated to strengthening our workforce with diverse, innovative and dynamic individuals

...like YOU
